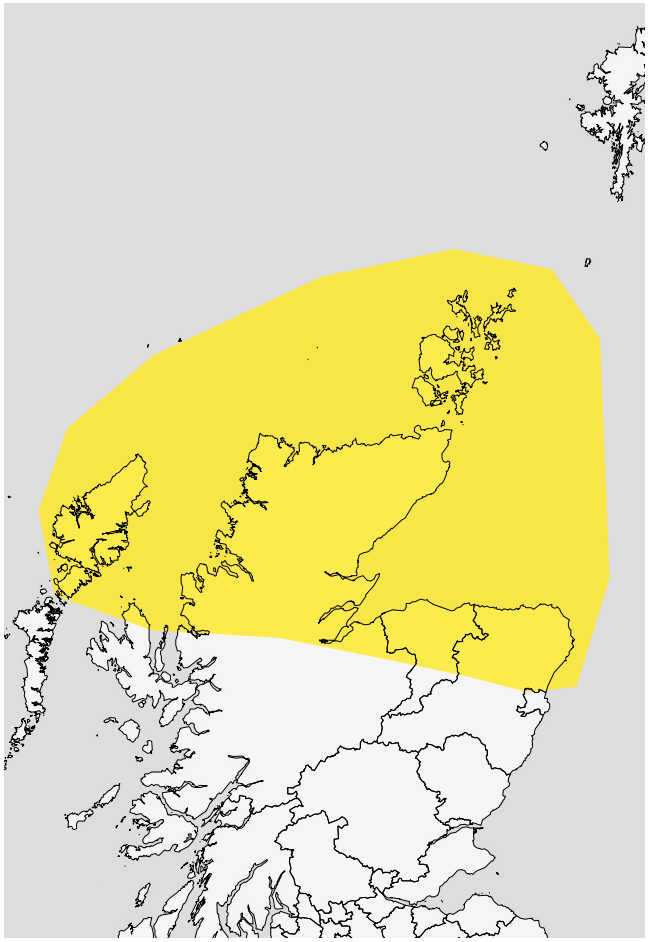
Yellow warning
Wind

Between
20:00 Tue 31 Jan 2023 and
10:00 Wed 1 Feb 2023



Strong winds expected to bring some disruption to parts of Scotland.

What to expect

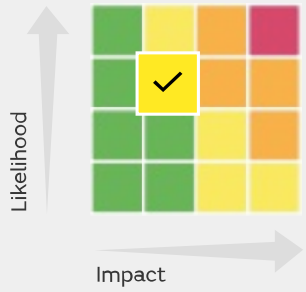
- Some delays to road, rail, air and ferry transport are likely
- Probably some bus and train services affected, with some journeys taking longer
- Delays for high-sided vehicles on exposed routes and bridges likely
- Some short term loss of power and other services is possible
- It's likely that some coastal routes, sea fronts and coastal communities will be affected by spray and/or large waves

Further details

A deep area of low pressure is expected to pass to the north of Scotland later on Tuesday, clearing away to the east during Wednesday. Gusts of 60 mph are likely fairly widely, and perhaps 70 to 80 mph for a time across northern coasts of mainland Scotland, Lewis and Orkney.

Reason for update

The warning area has been reduced a little such that the focus is across northern Scotland. The end time has also been brought forward.



Medium likelihood of low impacts
